ANTI-AIRCRAFT BATTERIES BEAT OFF JAP ATTACK ON CORREGIDOR

Unified Supreme Command In The Far East Area

British General, Sir
Archibald P. Wavell,
Is Named

Washington, Jan. 3.—The War Department announced today that Sir Archibald P. Wavell, British general, has been named as supreme commander of the United States army in the Far East area.

At the same time Major General George H. Brett, chief of the United States army air corps, was named deputy supreme commander for that region.

Under the direction of General Wavell, Admiral Thomas C. Hart, commander of the American Asiatic fleet, will be in charge of all naval forces in the area and General Sir Henry Poole, the new British commander at Singapore, will be in charge of staff to General Wavell, who will take over his unified command in the near future.

The White House announcement, issued by President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill of Great Britain, disclosed further that China's Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek had accepted the supreme command over all land and air forces of the 26 "united nations" which are now or may in the future be operating in the Chinese theater, including "initially such portions of Indo-China and Thailand as may become available to troops of the united nations."

Joint headquarters staff, American and British representatives, will serve on the generalissimo's joint headquarters planning staff. The official announcement followed yesterday's formal pledge by 26 nations opposing Germany, Italy and Japan to use their full military and economic might against the aggressors and not to make a separate peace.

Selection of General Wavell, 58-year-old hero of the first Libyan campaign and now commander for India and Burma, was made at the suggestion of American and British chiefs of staff and was concurred in by the Netherlands government, Australia and New Zealand.

The announcement was made simultaneously in the capitals of

St. Anne Man and Decatur Girl Are Taken By Officers

Theodore Ducharme, 20, of St. Anne, was a prisoner of Sheriff Dan Bergan in the county jail, accused of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

He was arrested in Kankakee, where he is employed, yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriffs C. LaFontaine and Walter Bauer on a warrant sent here from Decatur.

Decatur authorities were expected here today to take him back to Decatur, also Rosetta Mae Hunt, 19, of Decatur who was found at the home of Ducharme's relatives in Wichita.

Iroquois County Names Boards For Defense, Tire Rationing

Watseka, Jan. 3.—(RN Special)—The Iroquois county council of defense, to become a part of the state and national defense organizations, has been organized here.

Members of the council, appointed by J. D. McCarthy, chairman of the county board, are—H. W. Bradshaw, Watseka; John G. Sumner, Sheldon; Warren Davis, Milford; Albert McMiller, Gilman; A. J. Zbinden, Olesna Park; Robert Morel, Clifton; G. Bert Olson, Onarga; Al G. Shaffer, Watseka; H. C. Pollitz, Watseka; Remi G. Roche, Buckley; and O. E. Johnson, Martinton.

Local tire rationing committee members have been appointed as follows:

To Ration Tires
Milks Grove, Chebanse and Ashkum townships, Robert Morel of

Offices In Arcade Bldg. Are Robbed

Police today investigated a series of office break-ins which occurred during the night on the fourth and fifth floors of the Arcade building.

At least four offices were entered, including those of Dr. E. A. Rush, Attorney Eva Minor and John Mayhew and J. G. Gieger. Locks were forced on these doors and an unsuccessful attempt was made on the door of Dr. Charles W. Geiger's office.

In only two places was anything discovered missing—$1 was taken from Dr. Rush's office and 80 cents from that of Miss Minor.

Suspecting youthful prowlers, police today warned that anyone caught loitering in the lobby or hallways of this building after 9:30 p. m. will be prosecuted.

Nine Killed And Two Injured In Auto Collision

Tragic Crash At Junction
Of Highways 140 And 43
Near Staunton, Ill.

Staunton, Ill., Jan. 3.—(AP)—Nine persons were killed and two others were injured critically last night in a collision of two automobiles six miles south of here in the worst auto accident which ever occurred in this section of the state.

The tragic crash at the junction of state highways No. 140 and No. 43 between Alhambra and Hanel cost the lives of five women, three men and a year old daughter of one of the victims.

State highway police identified the dead as Mrs. Rose Woolsey, 21; Mrs. Winnie Pryor, 47; and her daughter, Marcella Pryor, 16, all of Alton; and Harold King, 20, of Kenton; Lawrence Paddock, Glen Carbone, 13, driver of the second car; his one year old daughter, Carol Sue; Mrs. Clara Finley, 30, Optage Grove, Ill.; Myra Cloy, 21, and Leroy Warren Pringle, 21, both of Alton.

At St. Joseph's hospital in Highland was Harold Woolsey, 28, driver of the car in which his wife and three others were killed, and Mrs. Lawrence Paddock. Attendants said their condition was so critical they could give no account of the accident. Both suffered internal injuries.

High Rate of Speed
State patrolmen said the two machines apparently were traveling at a high rate of speed when they collided. Both cars were badly damaged and were found in a field 150 feet from the intersection. The mangled bodies of the victims were scattered many feet along the road.

Harold Woolsey was the only one of the 11 passengers in the two cars who was not thrown out onto the highway, the patrolmen said. Patrolman Harris May said that the two highways are wide and clear vision was possible from all directions. Officers were unable to determine on which highway the cars were traveling at the time of

Russians Retake Historic City, Maloyaroslavets

Continuing Offensive
Costing Germans Over
2,500 Dead Daily

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A German sequel to Napoleon's disastrous retreat from Russia in the winter snows of 1812 stared Adolf Hitler in the face today as Soviet troops were reported to have recaptured the historic city of Maloyaroslavets, 65 miles southwest of Moscow.

It was at Maloyaroslavets that Czar Alexander I's imperial Russian armies turned the tide of the Napoleonic invasion, compelling the French to fall back across the frozen steppelands with terrible losses.

Only 20,000 of Napoleon's original army of 500,000 troops got out alive. The British, meanwhile, commenting on the capture of Bardia yesterday in their Libyan campaign, declared today that more than 5,000 axis prisoners were captured there, including German Major General Schmidt, chief administrative staff officer of the Nazi "Panzer Gruppe Afrika."

Acknowledging the fall of Bardia, both the Germans and Italians acknowledged the fall of Bardia. A bulletin from Hitler's field headquarters complained anew of the bitter weather conditions in Russia, declaring:

"Defensive fighting in the central (Moscow) sectors continues despite intense cold."

On the same theme, the Berlin radio reported:

"In one battle on the central sector, the Bolsheviks attacked for four days and five nights without interruption. Our troops had almost no rest and this was in the severest cold and snowstorms."

Unconfirmed reports circulated in Sweden that the Germans were already building defenses along the Polish border, the jumping-off line of Hitler's attack on the U.S.S.R. last June 22.

The fall of Maloyaroslavets gave the Russians a base for exerting heavier pressure on German forces at Moshaisk, 30 miles to the north on the Moscow-Smolensk highway, which was already being hammered by Red artillery fire.

Nazi Casualties Heavy
Russian forces were officially credited with having killed 15,000 Nazi officers and men in the six-

Wants Land Title To Be Confirmed

A request that the circuit court confirm title to a half section of land in a subdivided township is made in a suit filed today by William L. Eaton of Holland, Mich.

The suit, filed by Attorney Elmer C. Wilson, names Stanley Dugolecki of East Chicago as the defendant. Filed in the office of Circuit Clerk Albert Tetrauli, the complaint says that last May 27 a quit claim deed purporting to convey the property to Dugolecki was put on record and "the deed purports to bear the signature of the plaintiff (Eaton) it is a forgery."

Eaton asks a judgment confirming his title and removing a cloud therefrom.

Farmers To Attend Machinery Class At Momence High

Invitations have been extended to farmers in this area to attend the first two of a series of 10 meetings to be held in the agriculture room of Momence high school at 7:30 o'clock next Monday and Tuesday evenings.

On Monday evening, farm machinery will be the discussion subject with Herman Brault of Kankakee, machinery expert for the International Harvester company as speaker. The use of check sheets will be explained.

On Tuesday evening, farm tractors will be discussed by Wendel Anderson of Tinley Park, service manager for John Deere and company. Movies and refreshments will be provided on both evenings, according to Harold N. Hungerford, Momence high school teacher.

Contested Divorce In Circuit Court

A contested divorce suit between Helen Postel Stankus and Joseph Stankus, both of Kankakee, was in progress today before Circuit Judge Luther B. Bratton.

Mrs. Stankus, representing by Attorney Victor Lauridsen, charges cruelty. Her husband, through Attorney Fred R. Stith, admits alleged cruelty but claims that his wife forgave and condoned such acts, and continued to reside with him.

Fire Destroys Home Near Chebanse

The seven-room two-story frame home on the farm of Henry Schnell northeast of Chebanse was destroyed by fire early today.

The tenant, Ray Minor and his family, were awakened from their sleep by smoke from the blaze which apparently started in the attic near the chimney. It was too far advanced to save much of the household goods. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

New Cars Or Old—They Don't Pool Donald

A prospective used-car buyer might do well to take Donald Deslauriers, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Urbain Deslauriers, 541 South Fifth avenue, on a tour of the automobile lots before making his purchase. Donald, who does everything that is expected of a three-year-old, has a photographic mind, it seems, which enables him to recognize and name the make of any automobile.

His mother awakened him from his afternoon nap yesterday so that he might display his talent to a Republican-News reporter. The street in front of the Deslauriers home was empty of cars, save for the reporter's, which was purposefully parked several doors away. It seemed hardly a fair test for Donald having just awakened, to call his shot on a car fully 150 feet away from his home. Still rubbing the sleep from his eyes, he peered a moment through the front window of his home and then answered correctly in a decisive voice.

It developed that Donald was just getting warmed up. His mother then thumbed through a magazine, and he called off the names of the cars pictured in the various advertisements without a miss. He had to study longer on some, but Mrs. Deslauriers explained that new models frequently puzzle him for a moment.

Having disposed of all the car ads without error, Donald appeared ready for another test. The reporter invited him to the front window and asked him to name the cars as they came down the street. This, it proved, was simple because he frequently called them off when they were still half a block away.

How did Donald get this way? Well, his parents claim that Donald has admired automobiles since he was old enough to walk, and occasionally he would ask his father what the make of this or that car was. Mr. Deslauriers knew a few of them at a glance, but more often had to read the names on the hub caps to answer his son's queries.

Now, when Mr. Deslauriers is puzzled as to the make of a particular car, he simply asks his son. Donald just needs a glance at a car from the front, side or rear before calling off the make.

Widower Receives Hamilton Estate

The will of Louise Polman Hamilton, late of Kankakee, gives all the personal property and a life interest in the real estate to the widower, Ulysses G.

At his death, according to the will filed in the office of County Clerk Hector J. LeBeau, the real estate goes to a daughter Edith H. Johnson.

Dated March 28, 1935, the will names the widower and daughter as executors.

Tire Rationing Machinery Set Up; Conference

Chicago, Jan. 3.—(P)—Machinery for administering the tire rationing program in 32 northern Illinois counties was set up today at a conference of local and county defense councils called by Henry Pope, Jr., state tire rationing administrator.

Recommendations for appointments of county tire rationing directors and boards were submitted for Pope's approval by the defense council representatives. They were not announced immediately.

A decision to start the rationing program Monday with a single board for each county countermanded earlier instructions for the appointment of a board in each political subdivision.

Pope said the county directors could appoint additional boards within the counties if they are needed.

Carter Jenkins, coordinator of the Illinois Defense Council, urged that no men in political life be named to the boards, as "it will have to turn down many applications that seem deserving and may not be very popular with their constituents."

Pope told the prospective county tire rationing board members that they would acquire the reputation of being "no" men.

The duty of the boards, he said, was to "efficiently and equitably distribute the tires allotted."

The counties represented at the conference were Boone, Bureau, Carroll, Cook, DeKalb, DuPage, Grundy, Henderson, Henry, Iroquois, Jo Daviess, Kane, Kankakee, Kendall, Knox, Lake, La Salle, Lee, Livingston, Marshall, McHenry, Mercer, Ogle, Putnam, Rock Island, Stark, Stephenson, Warren, Whiteside, Will, Winnebago and Woodford.

Similar organizations of the central Illinois counties will be effected at a meeting tomorrow in Springfield and the machinery for the southern counties will be set up at a meeting Monday morning in Mt. Vernon.

Local Aliens Must Give Up Radios, Guns

Sheriff Dan Bergan and Police Chief L. B. Rogers today were given detailed instructions by Thomas R. Gowenlock, co-ordinator of all law enforcement agencies in the state, on the handling of all prohibited articles surrendered by aliens.

The officers were reminded by Gowenlock in a communication that federal law requires the aliens to surrender all radio transmitters, short wave receiving sets and firearms to local authorities before 11 p. m. Monday.

He urged that until proper forms are distributed the officers make receipts in duplicate, including this information—serial number of the surrendered article, place and time of surrender, alien's signature and registration number, description of articles surrendered and signature of officer receiving the equipment.

Gowenlock said that a copy of the receipt should be given the alien with the original attached to the surrendered article. Sheriffs were urged to make certain that police within their counties had received the full instructions, which were issued from the United States attorney general.

British Convoy Reaches Port After Battle

Loss Of Four Warships
Acknowledged; 3 German
U-Boats Destroyed

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
London, Jan. 3.—The loss of four British warships was acknowledged by the admiralty today but, breaking a long-standing rule of silence, it told the British people the price Germany is paying to attack Atlantic convoys and the Royal navy's success in guarding that vital bridge of ships.

Two of the lost British warships were the 7,175-ton cruiser Neptune and the destroyer Kandahar which, a communiqué said, went down in the Mediterranean after striking mines.

The other two were the destroyer Stanley, a former American warship, and the auxiliary warship Audacity, the erstwhile 5,000-ton German merchant ship Hanover which the British had captured and converted into a warplane-bearing convoy guardian.

4-Day Running Battle
These two were sunk by torpedoes in a four-day running battle against German submarines raiding a convoy, the admiralty said in a rare report on such operations, but it declared the Germans lost at least three submarines and at least two of their big, far-ranging Focke-Wulf bombers in the attack and

The injured man was First Lieut. Robert W. Harner, Fairdale, Ky.

Mac Arthur's Army Battles The Invaders

Three Enemy Planes Shot
Down In Five-Hour
Jap Attack On The Manila Bay Fortress

Washington, Jan. 3.—(P)—The War Department reported today a five-hour Japanese air attack on Corregidor Island at the entrance of Manila bay. It said at least three enemy planes were shot down. At least 60 bombers took part in the attack, a communiqué said, but failed to inflict material damage on the fortification, which guards the entrance to Manila bay.

American casualties from the attack, which took place yesterday, were put at 13 killed and 25 wounded. Meanwhile there was a marked lessening of enemy ground attacks on General Douglas MacArthur's main force on Luzon but Japanese planes were active.

Governor's Communique
The communiqué, based on reports received up to 8:30 a. m., on said: "I Philippine theater, Corregidor Island in Manila bay sustained a five-hour aerial bombardment yesterday. The enemy air force attacking the island was composed of at least 60 bombers. There was no material damage to installations on the island."

"Our casualties resulting from this attack were 13 killed and 25 wounded. At least three enemy planes were shot down by anti-aircraft fire. The island was marked lessening of enemy ground attacks. American and Philippine troops were consolidated in new positions, where organized resistance to Japanese attacks will be intensified."

"Enemy airplanes were active in the region occupied by our ground forces. There is nothing to report from other areas."

The Japanese news agency Domei said the fortress of Corregidor was attacked simultaneously "by Japanese land and naval forces, and also said General MacArthur's forces were putting up desperate resistance in the Batan area northwest of fallen Manila."

"Sergeant York" Stars Famous Gary Cooper

One of the most eagerly anticipated screen events of this or any other year begins Sunday as "Sergeant York" starts its local engagement at the Paramount theater. Gary Cooper is starred in the title role of America's greatest world war hero. The film was produced by Jesse L. Lasky and Hal B. Wallis.

From the day, more than twenty-two years ago, that Sergeant Alvin C. York returned from France after his heroic exploit of capturing 132 Germans almost single-handedly, Lasky has been endeavoring to get his permission to film the story of his life. York refused to "capitalize on Uncle Sam's uniform," as he put it, until the current world crisis made him realize that he would be performing a timely patriotic service in allowing the story to be told on the screen.

It is in the main, a simple story, but the kind of story that is American to the core. Alvin York was a farmer down in the Tennessee hill country. Eldest son in a fatherless family, he worked hard to cultivate the rather barren soil of his little farm. Known as something of a "hell-raiser," he was wont to get drunk with a bunch of his friends every now and then and do his share in local saloon brawls. Then he "got religion," and the dream of his life was to get a piece of rich-soiled "bottom land" and marry his sweetheart, Gracie Williams.

Then came 1917 and the draft. York, deeply religious, was aghast at the thought that he might be called upon to kill, and registered as a conscientious objector. He was drafted, nevertheless.

York's expert marksmanship soon made him famous in his regiment. Then, overseas, his division was swept into the bloody battle of the Argonne, and York performed his amazing feat.

Hailed as the outstanding soldier hero of the war, York was decorated by General Pershing and Marshal Foch.

Under the personal supervision of Lasky and Wallis and the brilliant direction of Howard Hawks, the mo-

Gary Cooper As Sergeant York

Heroic exploit of capturing 132 German soldiers almost single-handedly during the Argonne offensive of World War I, made Sergeant Alvin C. York America's greatest war hero. Here we see Gary Cooper, who plays the title role in the motion picture "Sergeant York," bringing in his prisoners. The picture will be shown starting Sunday at the Paramount theater.

Majestic Starting Sunday

They start out as a song-writing team, but end up as husband and wife. Ann Sothern and Robert Young who, together with dancing Eleanor Powell, form the stellar threesome of "Lady Be Good," outstanding new musical, opening Sunday on the Majestic screen. The co-feature is "Ellery Queen and The Perfect Crime" with Ralph Bellamy and Margaret Lindsay.

tion picture "Sergeant York" has emerged as a living, breathing human document. Gary Cooper, whose work in such pictures as "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town" and "Meet John Doe" has made him an outstanding favorite of the American public, does the finest job of his illustrious career as York, and experts are predicting the job will win him an academy award. Sixteen-year-old Joan Leslie has also come in for her share of critical acclaim for her wonderfully natural portrayal of Gracie Williams, York's sweetheart.

The aid of school children as volunteer firemen in Dallas helped cut the fire rate 50 per cent the first ten months of 1941, as compared with the same period in 1940.
